

Interstate Medical Licensure Compact

November 18, 2021

For Immediate Release

The Commissioners of the Interstate Medical Licensure Compact (IMLC) held their annual meeting on Tuesday, November 16, 2021. Part of the meeting included the election of officers; the newly elected officers assumed their positions at the conclusion of the meeting.

- Commissioner Mark Spangler from West Virginia was elected Chair
- Commissioner Christine Farrelly from Maryland was elected Vice-Chair
- Commissioner Karen Silas from Alabama was elected Treasurer
- Commissioner Jesse Cushman from Nebraska is now filling the role of Past Chair

Committee membership and Committee Chairs are being assigned in accordance with the IMLC Bylaws. Regular meetings of the committees will resume in January 2022. The newly formed Executive Committee is scheduled to meet on Tuesday, December 7, 2021.

All meetings of the IMLC are open and all are invited to attend.

Executive Committee meeting information is posted on the IMLC webpage - <https://www.imlcc.org/imlc-commission/public-notices-agendas-and-minutes/>
