

IMLC Bylaws Amendments - Commissioner Aquino Comment

This is a good change. It will provide an excellent way to try to keep the leadership from getting a loose cannon. It provides a vetting process. It still provides for open nomination from the floor but gives everyone some background information on the recommended candidates.